

SHOWING HONOUR

Copyright Matthew Verschuur. Originally published in The Protector, 24/4/2006.

The Bible speaks of showing honour, but those who dishonour the Bible, government and fallen soldiers are often directly connected to evil agendas.

Every ANZAC day there are remembrances made of those who have died at war. The Bible shows that there is nothing wrong with honouring those who have fought for our nation and the cause of freedom, “Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.” (Revelation 13:7). “Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.” (1 Peter 2:17).

Those who speak against being involved in “foreign wars”, and speak about the “diplomatic solution” and “religious equity” do so in an attempt to undermine the general resolve to stand for things that are right. These ideas did not come from the Bible people, but from those with an anti-Biblical agenda.

Those who show dishonour are connected with sedition, that is, they are trying to incite people to go against all decency and anything Biblical. “For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, he hath also rejected thee from being king.” (1 Samuel 15:23).

It is no coincidence that the same people who come against the Bible in society, orderly government and Australia’s historical achievements, are often those who subscribe to the New Age, or witchcraft disguised as Christianity.

As Christians, we must not give credence to these traitors, who through books, articles and documentaries try to change the record of history, and alter things to make the good look bad, and the bad look heroic. According to them, the thieves, murders and terrorists are made into heroes, and anyone who stands for the Bible is called a tyrant.